

What would you do if you were at school and one of the other kids in your computer class showed you how to go onto a website that was not meant for kids?

Would you go onto the website Or would you tell him NO?

Awesome! It's okay to tell another person not to do something and if they don't listen to you, then it's time to ask a grown-up for help. A true friend would never ask you to do something that they knew was wrong.

But it's up to you to say NO.

What would you do if you were eating dinner and
your dog wanted to have a taste

Would you give him just a little taste
OR would you give him a dog biscuit instead?

It's hard to say NO to our furry friends when they look so cute, but giving your pet people food is not always good for him.

Instead give him a doggy treat;
he will love it!

What would you do if you
came home from school
and you found your older
brother sleeping face
down on the floor
and no matter how hard you tried,

he wouldn't wake up

Would you just leave him and walk away
Or would you get help?

That would be scary! You definitely need to get help!

What should you do when you need help?
