

Do you have any brothers or sisters?
I do! I have one brother, his name is Billy.
Me and Billy have a lot of fun together and most of the time we get along but I don't like it when he freaks out, especially in front of my friends or the other kids at school.

Like yesterday at school, while we were sitting in the cafeteria eating lunch together, Billy asked one of the kids at our table if he could have one of his cookies. Instead of answering Billy, the kid got up from the table and walked away. And that's when it happened!

Billy got mad! So mad that he flipped over his lunch tray and started to cry and stamp his feet! Not only was everybody in the cafeteria staring at Billy but everybody knew that he was my brother! I was so embarrassed! And instead of trying to help Billy calm down, I ran out of the cafeteria as fast as I could and left Billy with the mess and all alone!
