

Can't you hear me?

Lee is in his room listening to his favourite group on his music player.

"Lee, can you help me with this game? I can't get through the level... Lee, Lee, Lee!
Can't you hear me?"

I'm going to beat you!

"Alright Lee, you take this control and I'll take the other one. Ready?" Says Rose excited.

"But you haven't explained to me how to play yet! Rose, you're doing it on purpose to win, aren't you?"

"Of course not! It's very easy and you'll catch on straight away..." Says Rose, convinced that she will win.

"Alright, I'll play at dancing with you... But only if you put the pirate's game on afterwards!"

Adds Lee.

Watch how I dance!

Lucy and Rose are watching a music group that Rose loves on Dad's telephone screen. While Lucy is mesmerized by the video, Rose is practicing some of the choreography steps. "I'm good at it, aren't I, Dad? Watch how I dance..."
