

Before testing it, I put on my driving helmet, glasses and gloves.

"Ready, steady... Go!" I exclaimed.

Going downhill, the car went very fast. I had to brake at the bottom to avoid crashing into some trees in the garden. It was very close!

On the last stretch of the race, I forgot the desert, the jungle and the grand Formula 1 prize to concentrate on the goal. The race was very competitive, but I made a great effort and arrived in third place.

"Great!" I shouted euphorically.
