

"Achoo, achoo, achoo!"

Bet sneezes constantly. She sneezes happily, because she knows perfectly well that the Chiminis don't take baths when they have colds. So, they don't touch water or soap for a day, two days, a week...

She asks a group of squirrels that are jumping from tree to tree if she can join their game.
"With all that sleep in your eyes?" You wouldn't be able to tell the difference between a branch
and a liana!" Says one of them.
"Ugh! What dirty nails! Full of soil, like a mole's claws!" Says another.

But she doesn't have any luck among the flowers either.
"Stop fumigating us with that bad smell!" Buzz the bees.
"It's like the unbearable stench
of the skunks!" Complain
the butterflies.
